Worship Theme: Fasting (Ramadan - Begins June 18th). This week we reflect on the religious practice of fasting. This is particularly relevant because we are anticipating that 18th June will be the start of Ramadan. Fasting is an act of willing abstinence over a period of time as a form of self-sacrifice and dedication to God.

The Qur'an says "fasting is ordained for you, even as it was ordained for those before you, that ye may guard yourself (against evil)" 2, 183. For me, fasting is about trying to be good, making one-self more holy. Muslims usually fast between the times of sunrise and sunset in any 24 hour period. During Ramadan this takes place each day for one month. Our thoughts and prayers will be particularly focused on all Muslims who are fasting during this time.
